

Announcement of the Land Development Department
Subject: Declaration of the No Gift Policy in Relation to Duty Performance
Fiscal Year 2026 (B.E. 2569)

The Land Development Department is responsible for matters related to soil resource development for agriculture, soil and water conservation, research and development in soil science and sustainable land use, as well as providing soil resource information services to the public and other agencies. All officials of the Land Development Department are committed to performing their duties in accordance with the principles of good governance with honesty, integrity, transparency, and accountability - upholding the public interest above personal benefit. They conduct themselves and live in accordance with the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy for the benefit of the nation and the people.

Therefore, to promote a culture of integrity within the public service, ensuring transparency, fairness, and the prevention of conflicts of interest, as well as to strengthen public confidence in the Department's governance, the Land Development Department hereby declares its No Gift Policy with the following intentions:

1. The Land Development Department (LDD) is an organization whose officials shall not accept gifts or any other gratuities arising from the performance of their official duties, as such actions may lead to corruption or misconduct.

2. All personnel shall collectively foster positive attitudes and moral values in performing their duties with integrity, transparency, and fairness, and shall act in accordance with these principles until they become part of the LDD's ethical culture, refraining from any actions that may cause a conflict between personal and public interests.

3. Executives and supervisors at all levels shall act as role models and ensure that their subordinates strictly adhere to this policy and conduct themselves appropriately.

This announcement is hereby made for acknowledgment and strict compliance by all concerned.
