

Announcement of the Department of Land Development

Re : Intent of Integrity on the Administration of the Department of Land Development

The Land Development Department (LDD) gives priority to the anti-corruption control scheme in the public sectors according to the Kingdom of Thailand Constitution B.E. 2560 (2017), the 20-Year National Strategy (2018-2037) and the Strategy for Ethical Standards and promoting ethics in the government sector (2022 – 2027) which focused on all public sectors to be recognised for the good governance. As an Executive of the Department of Land Development, I hereby to declare my intention to perform the duties with honesty, transparency in administrative decision-making, and ready to drive LDD to be a role model through the moral values of "Self - Sufficiency, Self - discipline, Honesty and Volunteer Spirit" along with building up leadership integrity. All LDD members must comply all of rules and regulations with the organization ethical standard guidelines as follows:

1. Transparency : Maximize the convenient, fast, accurate , transparent, and fairness in operation. Encourage stakeholders participation and positive relationship.

2. Accountability : Act in good faith to meet the people needs. Strengthen transparency and accountability in administrative decision-making .

3. Corruption Free : Comply with the rules and regulations. Monitor and manage the conflicts of interest.

4. Culture of Integrity: Create a culture of honesty and zero-tolerance to corruption. Enhance and Support voluntary as well as sharing for the social benefit. Rely on the Philosophy of Self Sufficiency Economy, Religious and Cultural ways in working and living.

5. Work Morality : Establish guidelines for clear, transparent and fairness in HRM and Budgeting. Respect human rights and gender equality. Give particular important to the environmental sustainability and quality of life.

6. Internal Communication : Raise awareness of the LDD ethical standard guidelines by consistently communicating the 5 principles above to all LDD members.

This was announced to be acknowledged and comply from now on.

Announced on December 15, B.E. 2565 (2022)

Pramote Yajai

(Mr. Pramote Yajai)

Director General, Land Development Department